

Congratulation to Joey Persechino on his hole-in-one today (03 June 2012). I also would apologize for not having a current photo of Joey alone, but I am sure no one will complain about this one for the time being. (PS: Joey is the the individual on the right in this photo). Joey's hole in one was witnessed by Greg Bryant and Jerry Fowler. Joey went onto post a 71, making good use of this eagle. Good round and great shot Joey, there are two more par three's that you need to work on.

This was Joey's second hole-in-one. His first hole-in-one was on number 6 back in April of 2010. Joey, there are two more par three's that you need to work on.
